

Eros International to release Malayalam family drama OLAPPEEPI on September 23

Mumbai/Cochin, September 9, 2016: Eros International Media Limited (Eros International), a leading global company in the Indian film entertainment industry is all set for the release upcoming Malayalam drama Olappeppi starring Biju Menon Punasseri Kanjana, Sreejith Ravi and Paris Laxmi among others.

Produced by Sunil Ibrahim of Vibezon Movies, this family drama marks the directorial debut of Krish Kymal, renowned photographer, ad filmmaker and cinematographer who worked in Malayalam and Tamil films. The film also stars Jebbar Chemad and Anjali Upasana in prominent roles.

Set in the backdrop of 1970s, the film portrays the story of various impacts and the socio-economic changes that occurred in the state of Kerala due to the execution of the Land Reforms Act in 1970. The film especially focuses on the turmoil created in an upper class feudal family due to the Land Reforms Act.

Following the success of the company's latest Malayalam release, director Omar Lulu's Happy Wedding that just completed 100 days in theatres, Eros continues to make its successful inroads into Malayalam cinema. Commenting on the release, Sunil Lulla, Managing Director, Eros International said, "We remain focused on strengthening our presence in regional cinema and associating with some of the best talent in the Malayalam industry. Like our previous successes, we hope Olappeppi also wins audience acclaim".
